

City of Charlotte, North Carolina Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Junior League of Charlotte is committed to promoting voluntarism, to developing the potential of women, and to improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers; and

WHEREAS, the Junior League of Charlotte is an organization dedicated to positive change and is committed to making a difference in the lives of children and families particularly in the areas of physical, dental, and mental health in our community; and

WHEREAS, the Junior League of Charlotte contributes to Charlotte's citizens successful initiatives such as the Baby Home, the Junior League of Charlotte Warehouse, the Children's Theatre of Charlotte, the Charlotte Nature Museum, Discovery Place, the Council for Children's Rights, Charlotte Speech & Hearing, Thompson Child Development Center, and the Levine Children's Hospital Family Resource Center; and

WHEREAS, over 900 Junior League of Charlotte volunteers will give over 25,000 hours of volunteer service this year alone to continue the efforts begun 85 years ago; and

WHEREAS, over the past 85 years, the Junior League of Charlotte has contributed over a million volunteer hours and more than $12.5 million to the Charlotte community; and

WHEREAS, Junior League of Charlotte is an integral part of the Charlotte community and is being recognized for celebrating their 85th Anniversary and for their contributions to our community:

NOW THEREFORE, I, Anthony R. Foxx, Mayor of Charlotte, do hereby proclaim September 13, 2010 as in Charlotte and commend its observance to all citizens.

Junior League of Charlotte Day

WITNESS MY HAND and the official Seal of the City of Charlotte.

Anthony R. Foxx
Mayor