Junior League of Charlotte, Inc. Gears up for Week of Service & Thanks

Charlotte, NC (November 16, 2021) - The Junior League of Charlotte, Inc. (JLC) is gearing up for a Week of Service & Thanks. Beginning November 16, 2021, the women of the JLC will spend five consecutive days volunteering their time and efforts across nearly a dozen local non-profit organizations. This yearly tradition provides more than 1,500 members the opportunity to learn about some of our past and present community partners, serve their organizations and understand the difference our partnership makes within our local community.

About the Junior League of Charlotte, Inc.

The Junior League of Charlotte, Inc. (JLC) is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community. Through its actions and the leadership of trained volunteers, the JLC has been a leading force in improving the lives of children and families. Since 1926, the JLC has donated over $13.7 million dollars in grants and special projects and more than 1.6 million hours of volunteer service to the greater Charlotte community. Between the Charlotte Nature Museum, Discovery Place, the Levine Children's Hospital Family Resource Center, and more, the League has left a legacy of service, dedication and compassion. Projects currently supported by the JLC include: Alexander Youth Network, Bright Blessings, Center for Community Transitions, Charlotte Bilingual Preschool, Charlotte Speech & Hearing Center, Classroom Central, Digi-bridge, Done In A Day, Heart Math Tutoring, Renaissance West Community Initiative, Sugar Creek Charter School and Thompson Child and Family Focus.
