Junior League of Charlotte, Inc. Gears up for Week of Service

Charlotte, NC (November 14, 2022) - The Junior League of Charlotte, Inc. (JLC) is gearing up for a Week of Service. Beginning November 14, 2022, the women of the JLC will spend five consecutive days volunteering their time and efforts across six local nonprofit organizations. This annual tradition provides more than 1,400 members the opportunity to learn about some of our past and present community partners, serve their organizations and understand the difference our partnership makes within our local community.
