The Junior League of Charlotte to Sponsor Warming Kids' Hearts Donation Drive

Charlotte, N.C., January 15, 2018 - The Junior League of Charlotte, Inc. is pleased to announce its Warming Kids' Hearts donation drive in partnership with The Center for Community Transitions. The drive, benefitting local Charlotte children and families, will take place Saturday, February 3, 2018 from 12-4pm at GoodRoad CiderWorks in Charlotte.

While enjoying the ambiance at GoodRoad CiderWorks, those across the Charlotte region can help make winter warmer for children and families in the area by donating new socks, hats, gloves, blankets and small stuffed animals. All items donated will benefit those participating in programs and services through The Center for Community Transitions, a local nonprofit organization that strengthens the community by helping those with criminal records navigate paths towards healthy and productive lives. In addition to GoodRoads CiderWorks' cider, local food trucks will be on-site serving a variety of food options.

"The Junior League of Charlotte is dedicated to making an impact in our local community through voluntarism and initiatives such as our Warming Kids' Hearts donation drive," said Arina Kirk, President. "We are excited to partner with The Center for Community Transitions and the Charlotte community to provide warm necessities and make winter warmer for these children and families."
